EXECUTIVE SEARCH

Top managers from a competent source.

Do you want a professional and discreet search for a CEO?

Are you looking for the right leaders?

Are you aware of the benefits and the value of a targeted direct approach?

Executive search is one of WILHELM's core competences: finding and attracting the right people and promoting their integration into the company.

The holistic approach comprises the search, selection and support of directors, top managers and leaders for national and international companies.

OUR MISSION FOR THE CLIENT

- WILHELM finds outstanding people who are enthusiastic about new challenges and have the qualifications to strengthen companies' competitiveness
- WILHELM focuses rigorously on the needs of clients and candidates
- Our partners and senior consultants, with experience on the management level, understand your needs and concerns

DIRECT APPROACH

The search is primarily conducted using the direct approach, drawing on the wide-spread personal network and WILHELM'S long-standing contacts with leaders and top executives. WILHELM has built its own research team for the purpose.

INTERNATIONAL NETWORK

WILHELM'S executive search team is connected with foreign partners within the global IMSA (International Management Search Associates) network. They pursue an identical position in their markets and are committed to very high standards with regard to the quality of their consultancy.
